

MTSI Lab/Field Manager – Merced, CA

Ability to oversee and perform laboratory and field testing and reporting for all soils and concrete in accordance with approved plans and specifications for each assigned project, and other tests as assigned. Oversee/peer review all lab work performed by technicians. Perform field work on occasional to part time basis. Must be completely familiar with all procedures and test methods. Responsible for reviewing lab test results and routing to proper management for approval and/or peer review. Repairs, maintains, and purchases field equipment, as needed. Submit timely, all required documentation for billing review process.

Essential Functions

- Technical Abilities – Ability to refer/interpret/implement ASTM, CBC, IBC, CalTrans, ACI, and ASHTO code books and procedure manuals for proper test results. Oversee CCRL laboratory certifications requirements to maintain current approved standing, and DSA requirements to maintain LEA certification for assigned lab.
- Review/report test results for nuclear density, compaction, compression, and other miscellaneous testing reports as needed.
- Support MTSI Department – Coordinate/organize/update/repair/calibrate all laboratory and field equipment. Maintain equipment logs for repairs, maintenance, and calibrations. Organize and order supplies as needed.
- Administrative – Maintain and submit all documentation needed for billing review processing. Report any dangerous conditions; faulty equipment; and dishonest, unethical, abusive, or illegal behavior to your direct supervisor or senior management.